Re: Safety Light Corporation Site
Bloomsburg, PA

Dear Mr. Steinmetz,

As we discussed during our telephone conversation today, Sunoco requested, and the EPA granted and extension until January 9, 2006 for Sunoco to respond to the 104(e) information request letter, which was sent to Sunoco regarding the above captioned site.

At this time, Sunoco has no information regarding the Safety Light Corporation or the other companies listed in EPA's information request. One of the attachments to EPA's letter was titled Radium "D" Foil Shipments, and had a line entry for Sun Oil Bishop Hollow Road, Newtown Square, Pa. Sunoco had a small laboratory in Newtown Square, which closed approximately twenty years ago. Consequently, Sunoco requires the additional response time to attempt to locate files in storage, and interview employees and retirees.

Please contact me if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "Thomas J. Haines". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style.

Thomas J. Haines
